

Role :- Navision Technical Consultant

Experience :- 3 to 7 years

Location :- Mumbai / Noida / Bhopal / Vadodara

Job Description :-

- At least 5+ years of experience in Dynamics 365 Business Central formerly known as Microsoft Dynamics NAV.
- Previous experience leading and growing a Dynamics 365 Business Central Practice or NAV practice.
- Minimum 3 end-to-end ERP project implementations across many industries and levels of complexity.
- Should have knowledge of Integrating NAV/ Business Central solution with other third-party application.
- Experience in Dynamics NAV / D365 Business Central development using AL and C/AL.
- Provide a technical support during the implementation of the various solutions at our customers.
- Creation of solution concepts based on standard functionalities, as well as organizational planning of various implementation projects.
- Define the technical requirements as well as technical acceptance, testing and documentation.
- Translate the functional needs into a correct estimate and then ensure a technically structured development.
- Technical release planning for Microsoft Dynamics 365 Business Central / NAV developments.
- Support and guide the Team during the different implementations.
- Advanced understanding of the Microsoft ecosystem.
- Expert knowledge of waterfall and agile ERP implementation methodologies.
- Degree in information systems along with business degree and accounting designation is highly desirable.
- Extensive client account and project management experience with demonstrated ability to plan and manage the execution of consulting and implementation projects.
- Recognized as valued trusted advisor in relationships with clients, colleagues, vendors, and other industry professionals.
- Passionate and successful in mentoring others and developing their careers.

Demonstrated ability :-

- Surface or discover problem solving opportunities through your personal network and/or through market relationships nurtured.
- Initiate and manage a solution-based sales cycle.
- Plan and manage complex client engagements involving multiple teams.
- Manage vendor relationships.
- Passionate and successful in mentoring others and developing their careers.
- Strong business acumen across a variety of industries and business functions.
- Involvement in local professional networking and civic/community activities.
- Strong local network of IT and business executives and business acumen across a variety of industries and business functions.